ADMIN##	01-JUN-20_13:36:56	No.42432	Late to this, but Stephen Kohn has leaked a report, from the German interior ministry Unit KM4, that blows the coronavirus hoax out of the water. It was first released on May 9th, to a magazine called 'Tichys Einblick' (no, I've no idea, either), but of course the mainstream media chose to ignore it. The guy has, of course, been suspended from his job and told to get a lawyer. A spokesman for his boss dismissed the report with talk of... wait for it, "guys with tinfoil hats". Should have come through the 1900 Club, maybe?
US3R_RECKIT	01-JUN-20_14:01:14	No.42435	^42432 Looks like it came out round about the same time that Bill Gates disappeared from the news cycle. He was becoming an embarrassment. Looks like the general consensus is nobody's taking the vaccine. Second wave? Bounce up and down on Liberty (UK) to investigate the future implications. They'll try it again and again.
US3R_RECKIT	01-JUN-20_14:03:33	No.42436	Anything from Fauci? Remdesivir is failing all the tests.
